THE South-Carolina GAZETTE.

From TUESDAY May 14th, to TUESDAY May 21st, 1754.

CHARLES-TOWN, May 21.

The SPEECH of His Excellency JAMES GLEN, Esq; Governor in Chief, and Captain-General, in and over His Majesty's Province of SOUTH-CAROLINA; delivered to the General Assembly of the said Province, on the 8th Instant.

Honourable Gentlemen,
Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen,

I AM glad the Public Business is in such Forwardness, that I hope you will entirely finish it before you think of returning to your several Habitations; for, as this is the last Session of this General Assembly, so it is probable that it will be the last Meeting of this Session: And sorry I am to add, that it is likely to be the last Time that ever I shall have the Pleasure to meet any Assembly, as I have received certain Advice, that another Governor may be soon expected.

I have had the Honour to be your Governor for many Years: How I have behaved in that Station, is not fit for me to say: The People have been my Witnesses, let the People be my Judges also: But this I may be permitted to say, and I can do it with Truth, that my Intentions have been good, my Views have been all directed to your true Interest, they have all terminated in your Happiness as in their proper Center; and therefore my Designs, at least, have been laudable, a Reflection that affords me great Satisfaction; 'tis a Pleasure that I at present possess, that I shall carry with me [illegible]

As I have made the Good of the Community my chief Study, so I have made it the Basis and Foundation upon which to build the future Felicity of my Life; I knew it was impossible to please Heaven, to have my Royal Master's Approbation, or to gain the good Opinion of the People, without it: These are the only Riches that I have ever thought worth treasuring up; Money seemed of no Value, as no Money could buy the Satisfaction that I proposed in the Accomplishment of these higher Ends: I always thought a good Name preferable to great Riches; and, as I made your Prosperity my sole Pursuit, I was in Hopes that I might leave the Province in such a State, that my Name (as long as such Names as mine can live) might be remembered in it with some Honour.

My Errors have, I am afraid, been many, for even the best and most improved Undertakings cannot secure themselves from them, how much less a Mind like mine, extremely limited and weak? But, as they have been all Errors of the Judgment only, and not of the Will, I hope your Kindness will cast a Veil over them.

I shall leave such faithful Counsellors, and affectionate Friends, with great Regret; the greater, that I think I am, by long Experience and honest Application, more capable of serving my King and Country, than when I arrived amongst you: But, tho' I leave you, my Love for this Province shall never be less, my Labours for it shall never cease.

[The ADDRESSES of the Council and Assembly, will be inserted in our next.]

Capt. Maurice Suckling, lately appointed Commander of His Majesty's Snow Baltimore, in the Room of Capt. McDonald deceased, arrived here last Saturday, from London, in the Industry, Capt. Pearson: In the same Vessel arrived also Capt. Holding, another Commander in the Navy.

A small Shock of an EARTHQUAKE was felt here last Sunday Morning, about 11 o'the Clock (while the Inhabitants were at Divine Service), which lasted about 4 Seconds; and being unusual in this Country, created no small Surprize and Astonishment. The Tremor was scarce perceptible in Town, but in the circumjacent Parts of the Country very plain; and a Noise was very distinctly heard, most like the rattling of Coach-Wheels going over a Bridge.

The Liverpoole Sloop mentioned in our last to have been taken, by the Negroes on board, near the River Gambia; was soon after re-taken from them, after a smart Engagement, by Capt. Rosse, in the Sloop Young Prince George, of this Port.

DUNKIRK, February 25.

THE dwelling-houses in this place being insufficient to contain the great number of persons who daily resort hither, the king, in consideration of 4000 louis-d'ors, has granted to Robert Henning, Esq; and others, all the land on the south side of the harbour, as far up as the great bason at the head of the harbour, extending to the side of the canal that runs from St. Omar's, together with all the barracks, on condition that dwelling-houses be erected within a limited time. These buildings are to form a fine citadel, with spacious streets, not unlike the Tower of London, only more uniform. It is to have a communication with the town by a draw-bridge, of a particular model, built across the harbour for carriages, and another bridge across the bason [illegible] fes within a limited time, so as to form a citadel at Dunkirk, has occasioned some remonstrances on that subject from several princes.

Yesterday morning, about 6 o'clock, died of a fever and St. Anthony's fire, at his house in Arlington-street, aged 66, the right hon. Henry Pelham, only brother to his grace the duke of Newcastle, first lord of the treasury, chancellor and under-treasurer of the exchequer, a governor of the charter-house, fellow of the royal society, and one of his majesty's most hon. privy-council.

This day there was an extraordinary council held at St. James's, on the present crisis of affairs.

London, March 9. The lord chief-justice Lee is appointed chancellor of the exchequer, pro tempore.

London, March 14. Fourteen men of war of the line are put into commission, twelve of which are of 60 guns and upwards, and two of 50 guns.

London, March 16. The French king's forces appear, by an authentic list, to amount to 221,175 men.

London, March 28. Letters from the Hague still talk of a reduction in the forces of the republic, and even name the corps.
